

---

Contents

---

Introduction . . . . .	ix
Chapter 1. The Influence of the Ecosystem on the Development and Financing of Start-ups . . . . .	1
1.1. Contextual framework: the needs and challenges of start-ups . . . . .	2
1.1.1. The start-up, a 21st-Century initiative . . . . .	2
1.1.2. Financing of start-ups . . . . .	8
1.1.3. Start-ups in different spaces: context of comparison . . . . .	14
1.2. Analysis of the two spaces according to the criteria for successful fundraising: revealing a correlation between the environment and start-up financing . . . . .	20
1.2.1. The political influence of ecosystem development . . . . .	21
1.2.2. The attractiveness of the spaces: training and information . . . . .	31
1.2.3. The digital revolution: the opening of markets and financing methods . . . . .	36
1.3. Research methodology . . . . .	41
1.3.1. Qualitative study conducted through semi-directive interviews . . . . .	41
1.3.2. Analysis and interpretation of the results collected . . . . .	44
1.3.3. Validation of hypotheses: the influence of the ecosystem on the financing of start-ups . . . . .	51
1.4. Conclusion . . . . .	52

---

Chapter 2. Financing Young Innovative Companies in France . . . . .	55
2.1. Introduction . . . . .	55
2.2. Contextual framework: young innovative companies in France . . . . .	56
2.2.1. Characteristics of young innovative companies . . . . .	56
2.2.2. Impact of innovative entrepreneurship on growth . . . . .	58
2.2.3. Financing innovative entrepreneurship . . . . .	61
2.2.4. France's place in the financing of young innovative companies . . . . .	70
2.3. Empirical study: analysis of entrepreneurial dynamics in France . . . . .	72
2.3.1. Method of analysis . . . . .	72
2.3.2. The strategy of funding assistance institutions . . . . .	75
2.3.3. The strategy of innovation entrepreneurs . . . . .	79
2.4. Reinforcing aid for the financing of young French companies . . . . .	82
2.4.1. Lessons learned from foreign models . . . . .	83
2.4.2. The American model . . . . .	83
2.4.3. The British model . . . . .	85
2.4.4. The case of Singapore . . . . .	88
2.5. Strengthening participatory financing structures . . . . .	90
2.5.1. Characteristics of participatory financing . . . . .	90
2.5.2. Interest of participatory financing . . . . .	92
2.6. Economic recommendations . . . . .	93
2.7. Conclusion . . . . .	94
Chapter 3. Equity Crowdfunding of Start-ups in France . . . . .	97
3.1. Introduction . . . . .	97
3.2. Contextual framework: state of play on the financing of start-ups in France . . . . .	99
3.2.1. The evolution of entrepreneurial finance and sources of financing . . . . .	99

---

3.2.2. Financing practices of start-ups . . . . .	106
3.2.3. The process of raising funds from private investors . . . . .	112
3.3. Equity crowdfunding: a fast-growing financing alternative . . . . .	120
3.3.1. Presentation of participatory financing and equity crowdfunding . . . . .	120
3.3.2. The stakes and limits of equity crowdfunding. . . . .	127
3.3.3. Complementarity of financing methods . . . . .	132
3.4. The entrepreneur at the head of strategic decisions . . . . .	135
3.4.1. Meeting with entrepreneurs: presentation of the study conducted. . . . .	136
3.4.2. The perception of financing by entrepreneurs . . . . .	139
3.4.3. The success of the company as perceived by entrepreneurs . . . . .	144
3.5. Conclusion . . . . .	146
Conclusion . . . . .	149
References . . . . .	153
Index . . . . .	165